

Brothers of the quick eye and steady hand—a charming silhouette showing trapshooters of the New York Athletic Club at Travers Island following the "bird" as it leaves the trap. Pacific & Atlantic.

Above: The Prince Regent of Japan, an ardent horseman, leaving the palace on his morning ride.

Miss Stuyvesant Fish (left) and Mrs. Charles H. Voorhees demonstrating fencing positions to some friends at the Fencers' Club. In the group watching them are, left to right: Mrs. Charles Hopper, Miss H. I. Murray, Mrs. Frank O. Walther and Mrs. Schuyler Carlton. Kadel & Herbert.

Mr. Pierce Butler of St. Paul, Minn., who has been nominated by President Harding as Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court to succeed Justice Day. International.

At left: Mr. A. A. Milne, English author and dramatist, who has two plays now running in New York, at home in his house at Chelsea with his wife, who serves as his secretary and amanuensis.

Mrs. Winifred Mason Huck, new Congresswoman from Illinois, is a golf enthusiast and keeps herself fit through an occasional round of the links. Here she is shown on the course near the Capitol. Wide World.

England's unemployment problem—a delegation of jobless men, led by their band, on the march to London from their homes in the provinces to demand maintenance by the national exchequer. Pacific & Atlantic.